TORRANCE CHURCH NEWS

Central Evangelical Church
E. L. Weatherwax, pastor.
Sunday School, 9:30. Rev. Geo. Steit, superintendent.

Morning Worship, 10:45, Pastor preaching.

Evening Worship, 7:30, Rev. Otto Spreng, preaching.

Young People's Alliance, 6:45.

Prayer Meeting, Wednesday evening, 7:30. C. W. Northrup, class leader.

Choir rehearsal, Friday evening, 7:30.

Central Church is planning to open an evangelistic campaign beginning Sunday morning, January 2nd. They expect to have an evangelist to assist in the meetings. And it is expected that special music will be one feature of the meeting. The general public will be welcome to all meetings.

Sunday morning, December 12th, a splendid congregation was present and Rev. Weatherwax preached from the text found in St. John 15:7 "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you."

Rev. Otto Spreng preached a splendid sermon in the evening.

The choir sang the anthem: "O Lord Our Governor," with Mrs. Curtis and Mrs. Chas. Curtis as soloists at the morning worship.

At the evening worship Mrs. Briney and Miss Spreng sang, "Have Thy Way Lord."

Next Sunday there will be special music by the choir and in the evening a solo by Mrs. Pearl Laven.

The music for Christmas week is especially attractive. Thursday evening Dec. 23rd the beginners and primaries will give their entertainment consisting of recitations, dialogues and songs which will be followed with the rendition by the junior chorus of the Cantata "The Manager Babe" by De Ruff, this chorus will consist of thirty or more boys and girls who have been trained by C. H. Van Hellen for several weeks and will be worth hearing.

The Sunday following Christmas the choir chorus will have special anthems for the morning worship. Mrs. Laven will sing, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," from "The Messiah" at the hour of the evening worship, the cantata, "The Prince of Peace by Ashford, will be sung by the large choir, directed by Mrs. Perry Briney with Mr. Van Hellen at the piano. The choir has been augmented to about 30 voices. The music is most beautiful and attractive. The solo parts will be sung by Mrs. Neelands, Mrs. Laven, Mrs. Briney, Mr. Curtis, Dr. Neelands and Mr. Webster. The rendition of this splendid cantata will afford Torrance lovers of good music an opportunity to hear something worth while, sung by voices all of whom are well known in church, social, and music circles of your city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Richards of Portola street gave a dinner Sunday evening in honor of their new sister-in-law. Mrs. R. B. Coogan of Redondo Beach, the guests in attendance being Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Coogan, Mr. and Mrs. L. Padula, Mr. and Mrs. R. Rogers of Redondo Beach and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Richards.
